Michelle has over 17 years of experience in Executive Search; providing senior-level, professional search strategy and execution services to top-tier, executive search firms as well as managing her own portfolio of client companies.

Originally from Toronto, Michelle has lived and worked all over Canada including Vancouver and her new hometown Calgary, Alberta.

Her experience spans a range of industries and sectors including, but not limited to: aviation & aerospace, consumer & retail, sports & entertainment, alternative energy, technology, travel/tourism & hospitality and not-for-profit.

Functionally, Michelle specializes in VP, C-suite, and Board level searches. From an advisory position, Michelle is passionate about leadership and culture, ESG, and transformation.

She is an experienced public speaker, having given talks at various industry conferences and is an active participant in the business community. She is currently a member of Board Ready Women and has formerly been a member of the Greater Vancouver Board of Trade, and the Forum for Women Entrepreneurs (FWE).

Michelle is also passionate about philanthropic causes and has actively participated in the Junior Achievement – Canadian Business Hall of Fame (Selection Committee Process), Holiday Helpers, Covenant House – Sleep Out (Vancouver), BC Children's Wish Foundation, and presently CARS (Calgary Animal Rescue Society).
